

Lieutenant Colonel John O'Grady 1st Battalion, 84th Infantry Regiment Battalion Commander

LTC John O'Grady graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1990. His previous command assignments were battery commander, C/3-16 FA, 2BDE, 4ID, Fort Hood, Texas. He commanded C3/16 FA for 22 months.

LTC O'Grady's other key assignments include but are not limited to platoon leader, battery executive officer, aide-de-camp, battalion adjutant, task force fire support officer, battalion assistant operations officer, 1AD DIVARTY assistant operations officer. He also served as an observer/controller at Hohenfels, Germany, lieutenant colonels assignment officer and executive officer to the director, officer personnel management division, both at Human Resources Command.

LTC O'Grady is a graduate of the field artillery officer's basic and advance courses, command and general staff officer's course, and the marine amphibious warfare course.

LTC O'Grady's awards include the bronze star and the meritorious service medal. He is authorized to wear the Army parachutist badge and combat action badge.