

Lieutenant Colonel Timothy D. Walsh 24th Brigade Support Battalion Battalion Commander

LTC Timothy D. Walsh enlisted in the US Army Reserves in November 1990, completing basic training in 1991 (12B Combat Engineer) at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. After completing Basic Training, he transitioned to the Kentucky Army National Guard and joined the Reserve Officer Training Corps at Eastern Kentucky University serving in the 206th Engineer Battalion, 35th Infantry Division based in Richmond, Kentucky as part of the Simultaneous Membership Program. LTC Walsh received his commission into the Medical Service Corps after graduating from Eastern Kentucky University as Distinguished Military Graduate (Bachelors of Science-Police Administration) in 1993. After completing both the AMEDD Officer Basic and Medical Logistics Courses at Fort Sam Houston, Texas he was assigned as the Battalion S4, 16th Medical Logistics Battalion, 18th Medical Command, Camp Carroll, Korea. Following this assignment, LTC Walsh served in various leadership positions within the 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas which included Treatment Platoon Leader and Company Executive Officer, C Co., 215th Forward Support Battalion, and later Division Medical Supply Officer, C Co., 27th Main Support Battalion.

LTC Walsh then completed the Combined Logistics Officer Advance Course at Fort Lee, Virginia and served as the Force Medical Supply Officer, 1st US Army Support Battalion, Multinational Force and Observers, Sinai, Egypt. LTC Walsh then returned to 1st Cavalry Division, serving as the Commander, E Co., 27th Main Support Battalion, followed by Battalion S3, 115th Forward Support Battalion. After completing the United States Army Medical Materiel Agency Internship Program, LTC Walsh served as the Chief, Medical Materiel Branch, Ireland Army Community Hospital, Fort Knox, Kentucky and was selected to attend Combined General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

After finishing CGSC, LTC Walsh served as the Senior Medical Logistics Planner, 4th Infantry Division which included a deployment in support of OIF 05-07 (Multinational Division-Baghdad). Following this assignment, LTC Walsh served in various leadership assignments within the 1st Medical Brigade, Fort Hood, Texas. These included Brigade S4, Brigade Executive Officer, and culminated with service as the S9, Task Force 1st Medical Brigade in support of OIF 09-11 (Baghdad). Prior to taking Battalion Command, LTC Walsh served as the Secretary of the General Staff, 13th Sustainment Command (Expeditionary), Fort Hood, Texas.

LTC Walsh's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal (1OLC), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (2OLC), Army Commendation Medal (3OLC), Army Achievement Medal (2OLC), National Defense Service Medal (Bronze Service Star), Operation Iraqi Freedom Medal (3 Campaign Stars), Global War on Terror Service Medal, Korean Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal (Bronze Hourglass), Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon (Numeral 4), Multinational Force and Observers Medal (Numeral 2), the Expert Field Medical Badge, and the Army Parachutist Badge.

LTC Walsh holds a Masters of Arts Degree in Procurement and Acquisition Management from Webster University, and is a member of The Order of Military Medical Merit.

LTC Walsh is married and has two children.